

About us

Since it was founded in 1985 DER THÜNKER has been the largest provider for professional business and office service in Bonn. No other office service has been able to exist on the market for so long in Germany.

There are four good reasons for this: our location in the Bonn-Center, our philosophy, an excellent team and our commitment in many business federations and company networks.